

Costello College of Business

Thank you for your interest in the Accounting Concentration at George Mason University's Costello College of Business!

Hello Ashleigh,

We welcome your interest in the Accounting concentration within George Mason University's Costello College of Business — a top-ranked business school according to U.S. News & World Report.

In the Accounting concentration at Mason, you will find a broad range of courses related to financial and managerial reporting, tax, audit, international accounting, forensic accounting, and accounting analytics. You will build a solid business foundation in the areas of finance, information systems, management, marketing, and operations management through the well-rounded curriculum.

LEARN MORE

APPLY NOW

There are so many opportunities for accounting students at George Mason to explore!

Opportunities include:

- Internships and externships in nationally recognized accounting firms
- The Accounting Honors Program
- Accelerated BS/ MS (Bachelor's/ Master's) program
- Accounting student organizations like Beta Alpha Psi, NABA, Ascend, and the Mason Accounting Society
- Mentorships through the Mason MINDS program
- Professional certificate preparation like CMA, CGMA, CGFM, CISA and CFE
- Research and teaching assistantships
- Graduate certificates in forensic accounting, accounting analytics, government accounting and accounting for government contracts.

Our graduates are employed by some of the top accounting firms as well as Fortune 100 companies.

Our proximity to the nation's capital provides unique opportunities for our graduates to work in government and public accounting firms.

Mason is an exciting university with a wealth of opportunities waiting for you. If you have any questions about the Accounting concentration, please feel free to contact me at businfo@gmu.edu.

Sincerely,

Long Chen, PhD
Area Chair, Accounting Associate Professor, Accounting
Costello College of Business
George Mason University

